

---

Times Facts

Bill joined the Times in 1990 as a night police reporter at the Tampa bureau. He worked as a general assignment reporter in Tampa from 1992-1997. He then became a general assignment reporter for the Floridian features section. In 2005 he was appointed National Editor and oversees the Times' national and foreign correspondents, Susan Taylor Martin, David Adams, Vanessa Gezari and Tamara Lush.

Talking Points

• Latin America • Middle East

Education

Bill received a bachelor's degree in English from Wesleyan University.

Background

Bill was a general assignment reporter at the New Milford (Ct.) Times before becoming managing editor. Bill is married and has three sons.

Awards

In 1995, Bill was given the Paul Hansell Award for Distinguished Achievement in Florida Journalism by the Florida Society of Newspaper Editors. He was a recipient of the Knight-Wallace Fellowship at the University of Michigan from 2004-2005.

Contact

Tel: (813) 226-3377

Fax: (813) 226-3381

E-mail: duryea@sptimes.com

Bill Duryea
National Editor