
Times Facts

Greg joined the Times in 1984 as a news editor in St. Petersburg. After working on the metro desk for four years, Greg moved to Citrus county to take over the news operation there. He served as the bureau chief in Citrus until 2002 when he was named to the position of editor of editorials. He is responsible for the opinion section of the Times Citrus county edition, including writing editorials and columns and editing letters and guest commentary.

Talking Points

• Opinion writing • Citrus county • Environmental Issues • Tourism

Greg is a frequent guest speaker for the Times at local functions.

Education

Greg earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from Temple University in Philadelphia. He also has a bachelor of arts degree from Central High School in Philadelphia, which at the time was the only high school permitted to issue bachelor's degrees in the United States.

Background

Prior the the Times, Greg worked at Newsday in Long Island. For five years he was city editor and copy desk editor at the Trenton Times in New Jersey. During college, he was the editor of the daily Temple News (which took over as the only daily newspaper in Philadelphia when the city's papers went on strike). While in college, he worked as a part-time reporter at seven different newspapers. Greg is firmly entrenched in the Citrus county community as a member of nearly a dozen organizations. He is a past president of the Inverness Rotary Club, a graduate of Leadership Citrus, a founder of the Nature Coast Envirothon and he has been a local Boy Scout leader for 16 years.

Awards

Greg has won numerous honors in journalism and community service during his 20-plus years at the Times.

Contact

Tel: (352) 860-7301

Fax: (352) 860-7320

E-Mail: Hamilton@sptimes.com

Greg Hamilton
Editor of Editorials/
Citrus County Edition

St. Petersburg Times
