
Times Facts

Bob Harig joined the Times in 1986 as a sports writer. From 1987-1995 he covered Florida State University athletics, other college football and golf. In 1995 he took over the Golf beat and now follows the sport on a local and national level.

Talking Points

• Golf: players & industry, local and national • PGA Tour • College Football

Bob is frequently interviewed about golf on radio and television.

Education

A graduate of Indiana University, Bob has a bachelor's degree in journalism and history.

Background

After graduating from Indiana University, Bob spent six months as a post-graduate intern at the Cincinnati Enquirer. He moved to St. Petersburg and joined the Evening Independent covering prep sports. When the paper folded in 1986, Bob moved down the hall to the Times and began covering Florida State University athletics, college football and golf. After leaving the FSU beat in '95 Bob began covering golf fulltime as local and national interest in the sport blossomed.

Contact

Tel: (727) 893-8806

Fax: (727) 893-8782

E-Mail: harig@sptimes.com

Bob Harig
Sports Writer