
Times Facts

Jana joined the Times in March 2004 as Chief Financial Officer, bringing with her 20 years of financial experience from banking and newspapers. As CFO she is responsible for all accounting functions, financial analysis and reporting, investments, risk management and corporate relationships with bankers and auditors.

Talking Points

- Financial Analysis • Financial Reporting
- Business Planning and Development

Education

Jana holds B.S. and M.B.A degrees in finance from California State University.

Background

She joined The Bakersfield Californian in 1996 as Controller after holding financial positions in banking, construction, and the beverage industry and was named CFO in 2001. Jana spent 13 years in banking, including a post at the American National Bank and its subsequent owner, Wells Fargo, with a focus on commercial lending, credit examination, and financial forecasting.

While in California, Jana volunteered her time to the American Cancer Society, Boy Scouts of America and Make a Wish Foundation. She is a past board member and former Treasurer of the Bakersfield South Rotary. She is also on the Board of Directors for the International Newspaper Financial Executives and an active member of the Independent Newspaper Group. Locally, she serves on the board of Ruth Eckerd Hall.

Jana is an avid golfer and has two sons, Brandon and Andrew.

Contact

Tel: (727) 893-8634

Fax: (727) 893-8366

E-Mail: jljones@sptimes.com

Jana Jones
Chief Financial Officer